TO WHOM IT MIGHT CONCERN

This letter serves to record our appreciation and thanks to you and your team for the professional assistance afforded us during our recent relocation and in particular the “make good” of our previous tenancy.

At the time the “make good” exercise seemed an insurmountable hurdle for us, yet you and your teams’ expertise, efficient and honest communication style allayed all our initial fears and concerns.

The “make good” exercise undertaken by your team was exemplary in terms of workmanship, timelines, costs and all allied activities associated with such an undertaking, for which we are sincerely grateful.

We therefore have no hesitation in recommending your company and services to any company out in the market who might be looking to engage your services.

All the best and once again many thanks.

Yours faithfully,
